

Author's first name and last name: Bc. Lukáš Fait

Title of master thesis: Creation of professiogram for selected military specialisation

Department: Department of Military Physical training

Supervizor: Ing. Mgr. Kateřina Dědáková

Presentation year: 2012

Abstrakt:

Problem solving: Ability of problem solving is inaccurate knowledge of working activity of an employee at systematized rank of Group of protection, Close protection detachment, Headquarters of protection service, Military police and resultant problems with selection of reasonable candidates for the position. Soldiers involved at the group of guarding and accompanying members of foreign delegations during their formal visits in the Czech Republic.

Purpose of work: Purpose of the work is to gather list of activities of a bodyguard from protection and escort Group of protection, Close protection detachment, Headquarters of protection service, Military police. To attempt approve or disapprove the results of my bachelor assignment that was showing the motor and endurance skills as prevailing

Methods: Main used method is the analysis time frame and creation of characteristics of the given position in the AČR. I will conduct by standardized tests for testing of motor skills.

Result: Determine the most important motor skills, which are necessary for a bodyguard. To create tests that reflect activities of the specified members of Military police and determine the level of their motor skills. To set the limits of tests of physical fitness for selection applicants on position of bodyguard of Military police.

Key words: Professiography, motor skills, motor tests, bodyguard, protected person.